Following its redevelopment, every care has been taken to ensure the hotel has retained its historic charm. The interiors are now a remarkable combination of modern and classical.

The hotel comprises 79 stunning bedrooms, retaining many original features. Many with unrivalled views of Windsor Castle, 7 elegant private dining & meeting rooms. The new Tower Brasserie & Tea Room serves classic British cuisine. The original stables have been transformed into a luxury spa with 4 themed treatment rooms perfect for a weekend treat, opening in January 2008.

The Ballroom has retained its original architectural features and provides an exquisite backdrop for weddings and private dining with seating for up to 160 guests.
